Dining Overview

The Villa Brasserie separate from the hotel, the 19th century Villa with its grand staircase entrance, offers a number of dining options in a setting of modern and traditional design. The Villa Brasserie offers contemporary Mediterranean cuisine, concept created by Michelin-starred Chef Michel Rostang and presented by Executive Head Chef Andy Gaskin and his kitchen brigade with French finesse, resulting in a creative mix of "La Dolce Vita" and "Savoir Vivre".

The Villa Terraces & The Villa Barista combines traditional bakery/grocery with an Italian coffee shop, selling a carefully selected range of everyday products, a tempting selection of sandwiches, salads and fresh breads and pastries. Service is on terraces overlooking the picturesque Bay or just as a take-away for a picnic on the beach.

Ku De Ta Lounge & Bar offers a light menu of salads, sandwiches and wholesome snacks. Enjoy the stunning sea views while listening to smooth tunes with a choice of seating from various lounges, outdoor terracing or the Bar. The Ku De Ta also features an indoor smoking lounge.

Scirocco Restaurant, the name of the famous wind, reflects the hot colour scheme of the restaurant and its contemporary Mediterranean theme. The Scirocco Restaurant is the main breakfast venue of the hotel, offering a wide choice of fresh products with a focus on healthy living and a balanced diet. In the evening, the buffet displays modern Western Mediterranean cuisine, with a speciality of exotic hot dishes.

La Bajja Pool Bar & Grill offers grilled meat and fish dishes, salads, snacks, and freshly squeezed juices, served at Malta's highest located Restaurant with stunning views over Balluta Bay. Open seasonally.
