Property Profile

When you stay at the Golden Tulip Vivaldi you are in the midst of Malta's top entertainment spot, St. Julian's. Yet shopping attractions, business opportunities and a bevy of great restaurants surround us.

Located just 50 metres from the sea and 300 metres from the Dragonara Casino, the Golden Tulip Vivaldi is a superior Four Star Hotel that combines the local flavours of the Mediterranean whilst ensuring international standards. A number of rooms and outlets have breath taking sea views. You can try your luck at the nearby casino, or just relax over dinner or the various other facilities provided by the hotel. Those who would like to dance the night out, well, nothing on the Island beats the night life in St. Julian's.

On the other hand, spacious conference facilities and the location of the hotel is just a mere 10 minutes by car from the business district of Sliema or a 15 minute-drive from the capital of Malta, Valletta, qualifies the hotel as an excellent host for people on business.

Providing the finest accommodation with spacious and well appointed rooms and suites, some of which offer a commanding view of the eastern coast of Malta, equipped with all the necessary up-to-date amenities, your search for the ideal hotel, be it business or leisure, is over. Inaugurated in July 1999, the Golden Tulip Vivaldi is elegantly decorated, with a classical style that ponders on the musical talents of the Venetian virtuoso Antonio Vivaldi. Indeed, the level of service sounds music to the ears of our guests!

Hotel Rooms

205 elegantly appointed rooms feature the ultimate in luxury and comfort with an impressive array of business facilities are ready only for you! These include standard, double and superior rooms; rooms with a breathtaking sea view; and suites.

To offer you better comfort the rooms are fully air conditioned and equipped with double glazing balcony doors, a fitted carpet, luxury bathroom, a minibar, a hair dryer, cable colour TV, a direct dial telephone and a modem connection point.

Conference Facilities

The Hotel offers 5 different venues designed to the highest standards. 3 conference rooms could be brought together to form a large suite. 2 syndicate rooms are ideal for board meetings or training seminars. The venues can host from 10 to 300 persons. Secretarial & Business services available. Audio visual equipment to service most common needs of conference organizers.

Organising a successful meeting, conference or any other event requires a great deal of attention. Our staff is readily available to meet your requirement for a successful outcome. At Golden Tulip Vivaldi we run a range of services for both conferences and functions ranging from seminars to full blown sit down conferences for up to 280 people in theatre style. We have five meeting rooms, two of which are syndicate rooms, and three conference rooms, which could be brought together to form a large suite.

The Opera and Concerto syndicate rooms are ideal for board meetings or training seminars.

The Sonata suite can be partitioned into three individual conference rooms all with their own entrance and door to the courtyard where, weather permitting, we serve anything from a coffee break to a full blown gala dinner.

Secretarial and business services are also available. There is also a vast array of audio visual equipment to service most needs of conference organisers.

The hotel prides itself in hosting national and international conferences by major local and international companies, business lunches, family receptions, weddings, and various types of exhibitions, even transforming our rooms into an art gallery.
